FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

The month of November is dedicated to the Souls in Purgatory – a reminder for us of our duty to pray for them, especially for our loved ones who have died. Just yesterday we commemorated All Souls Day and offered prayers for their souls; thus mysteriously contributing to their entry into beatitude.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches that all souls who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven. We give the name Purgatory (from the Latin word purgare, to make clean, to purify) to this final purification of the elect, which is totally and entirely different from the punishment of the damned. The Church formulated her dogma of faith on Purgatory especially at the Councils of Florence and Trent.

This doctrine is also based in Sacred Scripture: Therefore Judas Maccabeus made atonement for the dead that they might be delivered from their sin (2 Macc 12:46). There are several passages in the New Testament that point to a process of purification after death. Thus, Jesus Christ declares and whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but he that shall speak against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, nor in the world to come. According to St. Isidore of Seville (Deord. creatur., 14, 6) these words prove that in the next life "some sins will be forgiven and purged away by a certain purifying fire." St. Augustine also argues "that some sinners are not forgiven either in this world or in the next would not be truly said unless there were other sinners who, though not forgiven in this world, are forgiven in the world to come" (City of God, 21.24).

The necessity of Purgatory is grounded upon the absolute purity of God. In the Book of Revelations we read of the great beauty of His pure gold city with its walls of jasper and spotless light which is not of the sun or moon, but the light of the Lamb slain from the beginning of the world. There shall not enter into it anything defiled or that works abomination or that makes a lie, but they that are written in the Book of the life of the Lamb (Rev 21:27). Justice demands that nothing unclean, only the pure of heart, shall stand before the face of the pure God.

Suppose there was no Purgatory. The justice of God would be too terrible for words! Who of us would dare assert at the moment of death we were pure enough to stand before the immaculate Lamb of God? Do you think you could say it? I know I cannot. Archbishop Fulton Sheen beautifully says "Purgatory is the place where the love of God tempers the justice of God and the love of man tempers the injustice of man."

In praying for the dead, the Church above all contemplates the mystery of the Resurrection of Christ, who obtains salvation and eternal life for us through his Cross. Our hope is founded on Christ's sacrifice. Hence, the prayers of intercession and petition which the Church never ceases to raise to God have great value. They are "characteristic of a heart attuned to God's mercy" (CCC, 2635). During the Eucharist, through the general intercessions and the Memento for the dead, we pray for all those who have died, so that through the trial of Purgatory they will be purified, if necessary, and attain eternal joy. In entrusting them to the Lord, we recognize our solidarity with them and share in their salvation in this wondrous mystery of the communion of saints.

I therefore encourage you to pray fervently for the dead, for their family members and for all our brothers and sisters who have died, that they may obtain the remission of the punishments due to their sins and may hear the Lord's call: "Come, O my dear soul, to eternal repose in the arms of my goodness, which has prepared eternal delights for you" (St. Francis de Sales, Introduction to the Devout Life, 17, 4). Let us especially remember in our prayers the soul of Msgr. Sweeney and the souls of the Shrine's benefactors.

As we live the liturgical year let us always reflect upon the truth of our faith and let us consider them with all seriousness, because our lives are based upon them in this world, and consequently in the world to come.

Fr. Gustavo Nieto, IVE

Perpetual Adoration Campaign 2013

Could You Not Watch One Hour With Me?

What is Eucharistic Adoration?

The Eucharist is the actual body, blood, soul and divinity of our Lord, Jesus Christ. By adoring the Eucharist we are reminded in a very tangible way of God's love for humanity and his promise to mankind: "Behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age." (Mt 28:20).

There are 168 hours in a week: it takes about 336 people to keep adoration going 24/7, and another 75 adorers as substitutes. That is a total of 411 people.

While perpetual adoration is forever, one's life changes over time. The Lord understands this. Don't be afraid to commit to adoration, even if you might have to change your commitment in the future.

YES, I will spend one hour each week (or more) with Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament.

AL KRESTA

Join us for an evening with Al Kresta as he discusses Dangers to the Faith, takes questions, and signs copies of his brand new book.

Book & tickets available in the Gift Shop!

Al Kresta is a broadcaster, journalist and author, but first of all, a missionary. He is President and CEO of Ave Maria Radio and host of "Kresta in the Afternoon". He draws upon his unique faith background to create what is, arguably, the most fascinating – and most spiritually constructive – talk program on the radio today.

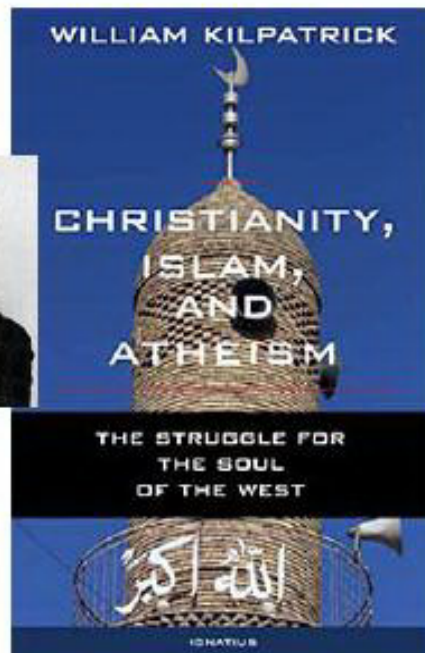

WILLIAM KILPATRICK

Saturday, November 16th 7:00pm

Join us the following weekend for a timely lecture by Professor William Kilpatrick on the topic of Christianity, Islam, and Atheism. Q&A session and book signing to follow.

Free & open to the public!

Professor Kilpatrick's latest book, Christianity, Islam, and Atheism: The Struggle for the Soul of the West, describes the growth of militant Islam in Europe and the US and explains the ways in which multiculturalists and well-meaning Christians alike have enabled its spread. He challenges the claim that there is a moral equivalence between Islam and Christianity and he details the startling differences between the two faiths.

Both lectures will be held in the Monsignor Sweeny Family Learning Center

"THE FAMILY IS THE SANCTUARY OF LIFE" (Bl. John Paul II)

Dear Parishioners,

As Blessed John Paul II teaches: "It is above all in raising children that the family fulfills its mission to proclaim the Gospel of life. By word and example, in the daily round of relations and choices, and through concrete actions and signs, parents lead their children to authentic freedom, actualized in the sincere gift of self, and they cultivate in them respect for others, a sense of justice, cordial openness, dialogue, generous service, solidarity and all the other values which help people to live life as a gift. The parents' mission as educators also includes teaching and giving their children an example of the true meaning of suffering and death. They will be able to do this if they are sensitive to all kinds of suffering around them and, even more, if they succeed in fostering attitudes of closeness, assistance and sharing towards sick or elderly members of the family".

Let us pray for all the families of our Parish that they will continue to place their trust in Jesus, the Way, the Truth and the Life.

In Jesus Our Lord and His Blessed Mother,

Sr. Angeles, SSVM

Helping pregnant mothers in crisis

Through the Gabriel Project, a new program of the Diocese of San Jose, pregnant mothers who feel alone or afraid are embraced as a daughter, sister, and friend. Volunteer mentors are trained by this Diocesan program to walk a mother through her pregnancy, and local community resources are enlisted to help empower the mother to care for her unborn baby. No mother should feel alone at such a critical time in her life. Through this personal contact and care, our Catholic community is able to bring the hope and love of Christ to any pregnant mother experiencing a crisis situation.

If the Gabriel Project speaks to your heart, come learn how you can be a part of this life affirming Diocesan program.

Commemoration of all Carmelite Souls (M) November 15

Gathered together by the same love for Christ and homage toward his greatly loved Mother, the members of the Family of Carmel continue to love one another fraternally, whether they are committed in the struggle for Christ on this earth, or after this long earthly pilgrimage, they wait for the glorious vision of the Lord. This is why the whole Order, united in prayer, recommends to the mercy of God the deceased brothers and sisters so that, through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, pledge of sure hope and of joy, he may accept them among the glorious choirs of Saints." In the month of November, we pray for the Souls not only of the Carmelites but of all departed souls for their salvation and rest. "Eternal rest grant unto them and perpetual light shine upon them"

Come to our meeting when we'll be discussing this on November 10th in Room 1216 at the Monsignor Sweeney Family Planning Center from 1pm to 4:30 pm
Further questions see Frank Cirimele at 408/723-8590.
