Our Lady of Peace Church & Shrine Mission Statement

Our Lady of Peace is a church and shrine dedicated to the greater glory of God and the salvation of souls.

It is a place of prayer & pilgrimage with:

- Perpetual adoration of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament • Devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary
- Frequent celebration of the Sacraments, particularly the Eucharist and Reconciliation
- Integrated formation of the person (spiritual, moral, intellectual and emotional)

Today We Celebrate Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

1st Reading: 2 Samuel 5:1-3
 Psalm: Psalms 122:1-5
 2nd Reading: Colossians 1:12-20
 Gospel: Luke 23:35-43

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

On this Sunday which closes the liturgical year, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. The Solemnity of Christ the King was instituted in 1925 by Pope Pius XI in his famous encyclical letter Quas Primas. In 1970 its observance was moved to the last Sunday of Ordinary Time and adopted by Anglicans, Lutherans, and many other Protestants along with the new Revised Common Lectionary, as well as by the Russian Orthodox Church Outside of Russia

In his 1969 motu proprio, Mysterii Paschalis, the Holy Father Paul VI gave the celebration a new title: "Our Lord Jesus Christ King of the Universe". He also gave it a new date in order to make clear "the eschatological importance of this Sunday": the last Sunday in the liturgical year. He assigned to it the highest rank, that of "Solemnity."

At the end of the letter Quas Primas, Pope Pius XI briefly enumerated the blessings which he hoped and prayed may accrue to the Church, to society, and to each one of the faithful, as a result of the public veneration of the Kingship of Christ.

These were the Holy Father's expectations which I'd like to share with you so that we may make them our own:

- When we pay honor to the princely dignity of Christ, men will doubtless be reminded that the Church, founded by Christ as a perfect society, has a natural and inalienable right to perfect freedom and immunity from the power of the state; and that in fulfilling the task committed to her by God of teaching, ruling, and guiding to eternal bliss those who belong to the kingdom of Christ, she cannot be subject to any external power. The state is bound to extend similar freedom to the orders and communities of religious of either sex, who give most valuable help to the Bishops of the Church by laboring for the extension and the establishment of the kingdom of Christ. By their sacred vows they fight against the threefold concupiscence of the world; by making profession of a more perfect life they render the holiness which her divine Founder willed should be a mark and characteristic of his Church more striking and more conspicuous in the eyes of all.

- Nations will be reminded by the annual celebration of this feast that not only private individuals but also rulers and princes are bound to give public honor and obedience to Christ. It will call to their minds the thought of the last judgment, wherein Christ, who has been cast out of public life, despised, neglected and ignored, will most severely avenge these insults; for his kingly dignity demands that the State should take account of the commandments of God and of Christian principles, both in making laws and in administering justice, and also in providing for the young a sound moral education.

- The faithful, moreover, by meditating upon these truths, will gain much strength and courage, enabling them to form their lives after the true Christian ideal. If to Christ our Lord is given all power in heaven and on earth; if all men, purchased by his precious blood, are by a new right subjected to his dominion; if this power embraces all men, it must be clear that not one of our faculties is exempt from his empire.

"He must reign in our minds, which should assent with perfect submission and firm belief to revealed truths and to the doctrines of Christ. He must reign in our wills, which should obey the laws and precepts of God. He must reign in our hearts, which should spurn natural desires and love God above all things, and cleave to him alone. He must reign in our bodies and in our members, which should serve as instruments for the interior sanctification of our souls, or to use the words of the Apostle Paul, as instruments of justice unto God (Ro 6:13). If all these truths are presented to the faithful for their consideration, they will prove a powerful incentive to perfection."

As we read this beautiful words it is also our fervent desire, that those who are without the fold may seek after and accept the sweet yoke of Christ, and that we, who by the mercy of God are of the household of the faith, may bear that yoke, not as a burden but with joy, with love, with devotion; that having lived our lives in accordance with the laws of God's kingdom, we may receive full measure of good fruit, and counted by Christ good and faithful servants, we may be rendered partakers of eternal bliss and glory with him in his heavenly kingdom.

Fr. Gustavo Nieto, IVE

Perpetual Adoration Campaign 2013

Could You Not Watch One Hour With Me?

What is Eucharistic Adoration?

The Eucharist is the actual body, blood, soul and divinity of our Lord, Jesus Christ. By adoring the Eucharist we are reminded in a very tangible way of God's love for humanity and his promise to mankind: "Behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age." (Mt 28:20).

There are 168 hours in a week: it takes about 336 people to keep adoration going 24/7, and another 75 adorers as substitutes. That is a total of 411 people.

While perpetual adoration is forever, one's life changes over time. The Lord understands this. Don't be afraid to commit to adoration, even if you might have to change your commitment in the future.

YES, I will spend one hour each week (or more) with Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament.

GRATITUDE IS THE VIRTUE THAT MAKES US AWARE OF THE GIFTS WE RECEIVE EACH DAY

Practical tips on how to live and foster
the virtue of gratitude in the family:

1. Always smile and say "thank you" for everything you receive, even if it is for apparently small and unimportant things.
2. Take care of your things, keeping them in order and sharing them with whoever needs them. Do not waste your gifts: food, water, electricity, clothes, etc.
3. Thank others with gestures and actions, such as a note, a little gift, etc.
4. Every morning, thank God for a new day and tell him you will try to live it well.
5. After meals, say a quick prayer of thanksgiving.
6. Say a prayer of thanksgiving at night with your children for all of that day's gifts, and ask for help to use those gifts for others.
7. Never complain or lament over what you don't have.
8. Enjoy your family activities, especially the simple things.
9. Make an effort to thank others for the work they do for us, and recognize their efforts even if it doesn't turn out well.
10. Learn to see the needs of others.

Let us give thanks to God always,

In Jesus Our Lord and His Blessed Mother,
Sr. Angeles, SSVM

TUESDAY EVENINGS 7:15-8:45PM

DECEMBER 3, 10, AND 17

FLC ROOM 1101 (CHURCH HALL, 2ND TUESDAY OF THE MONTH)

Join us for a pot-luck and meet the new members of the Catechumenate

You're invited to a pot-luck on Sunday, December 1, 2013, following the 12:00 noon Mass to meet the new members of the Catechumenate. As inquirers into the Catholic Faith experience an initial conversion and begin to enter into a relationship with God in Christ, they publicly declare their intention to enter the Church. The Church formally accepts the inquirers into her midst as catechumens. This is done at the Rite of Acceptance into the order of Catechumens. The Rite of Acceptance into the Order of Catechumens is of the utmost importance because these individuals are assembling publicly for the first time to declare their intention to the Church and the Church in turn carrying out its apostolic mission, accepts them as persons who intend to become its members. Please remember to keep all of our inquirers in your prayers.

Bring a dish and meet in rooms 1101-1103 following the Mass, and welcome those who want to enter the Church. If you have any questions, please call the Adult Religious Education office at 408-988-7543. We look forward to seeing you there.
